LIPSTICK DREAMS was written by Australian Playwrights Helen O'Connor and Simon Hopkinson. The play was first presented on September 7th, 1988 at the Arts Theatre, University of New England, Armidale by the New England Theatre Company.

Directed by Jan Paterson, Lipstick Dreams is a lighthearted look at the lives of four different women (played by Rosemary Lyons, Rebecca Noble, Alison Mohr and Susan Glosko) living in a small country town - each with their own dreams and disappointments - thoughts of what might have been and what really "is". They all seem to settle for second best - "somehow it's easier that way". Then one day they realise that their dreams could become a reality - that "they can do it". And that's what these four women do - THEY TAKE A CHANCE! They let their hair down and have the time of their lives.

The cast includes Callum Campbell and backstage - Desley Cronon, Karen Peart, Dave Dunkerley and Chic Currie.

A MUST SEE PLAY - laughter, tears, fun and songs that will have you dancing in the aisles.

FULL MONTY TO BARE ALL IN BRISBANE

Brisbane audiences will finally get to see what all the fuss is about when the smash hit musical comedy The Full Monty has it's premiere Brisbane season at QPAC. Based on the motion picture, The Full Monty features music and lyrics by David Yazbek (who also wrote the musical version of Dirty Rotten Scoundrels) and a book by multiple Tony Award winner Terence McNally.

So will the Brisbane cast really go all the way? Guess you will just have to buy a ticket and find out. The Full Monty, directed by Rodney Wolff, will pay from 5 - 22 October at the Cremorne Theatre, QPAC. Tickets: $25/$35. Bookings: QTIX 136 246 or www.qtix.com.au

COMPANIES GET READY TO LAUNCH

It is that time of the year when arts companies around Australia get ready to launch their new subscription seasons. Last week Queensland Theatre Company did the photo shoot for their 2007 season, which we won't reveal, except to say Barry Otto will feature in at least one of their productions.

La Boite Theatre Company will also present yet another new David Williamson play in 2007 featuring classical guitarist Karin Schaupp.

MEMO TO: BRISBANE RESIDENTS (Joke, Joyce)

The Brisbane City Council would like to thank residents from suburbs surrounding Suncorp Stadium who contacted them about the volume from the newly allowed live concerts - as of next month a levy (equivalent to the price of an 'interrupted view' seat) will be added to the rates of those affected.

Thanking you: GG. [Greg Gesch is a former director and sometime writer]

BOOKINGS - Jean Pratt Building- Desley Cronon

If you want to use the Jean Pratt Building at any time at all, for rehearsals or any other reason, you must contact Desley 3288 8754 to make a booking.

S-Troupe - director Di Johnston

Many thanks to Bev for running classes while Di is away, S-Troupe is now in recess over the school holidays, returning 14th October.

Our trip to Village Life Retirement Village was once again very successful and all the residents enjoyed it. Keep your eyes open for the next edition of "Connect" which will feature an article on S-Troupe.

Crossfyre Young Theatricals - director Suzanne Matulich

Crossfyre is on holidays - first session of term 4 is Tuesday 10 October and they then start serious (as in NO SCRIPTS) rehearsals for Wyrd Sisters.

Smart Arts - Junior Theatre - co-ordinator Liz Boekholt

Smart Arts are now in recess till 2007 following their performances at the 2006 Kaleidoscope Festival and at Woodlands. Keep watching your newsletter for news of how to enrol your child early in 2007.

Contact Alan on 3282 1269 for all queries re props and stage settings.

Ipswich Little Theatre Tours - Robyn Flashman

The three September tours have gone very well with a fantastic effort from Helen, Judy, Patti, Alan, Jane and Desley. A great team! The courtyard looked lovely, backstage and dressing rooms were very swish. We were able to sit people in the theatre for the talks about ILT and the Incinerator. Thank you to the current director, Jan P, for allowing this to happen! We were very proud to show people around our home.

And Then There Were None...

... Front Row Theatre's latest offering from that mistress of mystery Agatha Christie with Kurt Lerps and other favourite actors.

'The most baffling mystery Christie has ever written' and 'the most colossal achievement of a colossal career' raved the critics. This is the story of ten people who are invited to an isolated mansion on an island off the coast of Devon. Though they all have some murderous secret to hide, they arrive for a weekend get-together, full of good cheer.

But soon a series of extraordinary events take place; the island is bathed in the most sinister light, and panic grips the visitors one by one ... by one ... by one ... until ... there were none!

Performance dates at Hamilton Town Hall continue through September 22,23,29,30 at 7.30 pm

A little dramatic humour

Q: How many theatre students does it take to change a lightbulb?

A: Erm, what's the deadline, cos I may need an extension.

Q: What's the difference between an actor and a mutual fund?

A: The mutual fund eventually matures and earns money.

Theatrical Quote

When you come into the theater, you have to be willing to say, "We're all here to undergo a communion, to find out what the hell is going on in this world." If you're not willing to say that, what you get is entertainment instead of art, and poor entertainment at that.
