DECEMBER 2010 Ipswich Little Theatre Newsletter

2011 Ipswich Little Theatre Executive Committee

We welcome back our 2010 Exec Committee! They were re-elected unopposed at the AGM on 12 December. Left to right: Jan Paterson Treasurer, Jim Orr President, Suzanne Matulich Vice President, Helen Pullar Secretary and (inset) Judith Grant Past President. Our members thank them for their hard work and commitment to our theatre and commend them for taking on those tasks for another year.

Our 2011 gift to you:

We offer you a full year of plays which you can act in, direct or enjoy as audience members. Plays that go for a whole evening or festival plays that are only one act, plays that are only 10 minutes long or pantomimes for littlies and even a theatre restaurant with singing, dancing, food and wine.

We offer you theatre activity nights, monthly newsletters, classes for all youth members whether primary or high school and for people with special abilities. And all of these activities are in our beautiful Incinerator theatre complex with two fully equipped performance and rehearsal spaces.

Your 2011 gift to Ipswich Little Theatre:

In return for that wonderful gift from ILT, we would be truly grateful if you could give us a gift in return - your time and enthusiasm and support. This can be shown by offering one night each production season working front of house, attending our plays, letting your friends and family know what a wonderful society ILT is and how great a night out at the Incinerator Theatre or the Jean Pratt Building can be.

Is it a deal? Sounds like a great set of new year resolutions coming up too.

News from the groups within Ipswich Little Theatre four groups all based in the Jean Pratt Building are all taking a well earned break from theatre activities over the school holiday time.

Full details of term dates and sign on days will be in the January issue of Burning News and, of course, our ILT website.

More 2011 Attractions

You can add to the 5 exciting and varied productions listed left, a range of other interesting options at Ipswich Little Theatre.

Theatre Activity Nights: there is a very full program of theatre activities - ranging from play readings, auditions, trivia nights etc etc. We are aiming to offer at least one activity per month, on a Monday night. The first half of the year is already programmed - a program should be inserted with this newsletter, or check out our web-site.

Tourific Troupers: Another interesting activity is offered by our Tourific Troupers. These ILT members offers our tour groups short 10 minute plays, a tour of the theatre and a light meal or morning or afternoon tea. As we have more requests for these tours than we have members able to do them, your offer to join this group would be very welcome.

One Act Plays: we are also putting two one act plays into the South East Queensland One Act Play Festival circuit this year. If you would like to be a part of that fun, the auditions are on 7 February 2011.

FRACTIONS A WINNER FOR QUEENSLAND THEATRE

Queensland playwright Marcel Dorney's Fractions has taken out the title of Queensland Premier's Drama Award for 2010-11 from a field of 94 entries from across the country. Marcel Dorney will work with Queensland Theatre Company to stage Fractions as part of the 2011 mainstage season.

"Fractions is a story about Hypatia, a brilliant female mathematician and philosopher who, 1600 years ago, was responsible for the Library of Alexandria - a collection of all the knowledge in her world," said the Premier, Anna Bligh.

"When political turmoil runs unchecked, religious fanatics threaten to destroy the library. As Hypatia struggles to save it, she is forced to confront her own prejudice and to make a terrible choice."
