Skin Deep: our first production for 2011

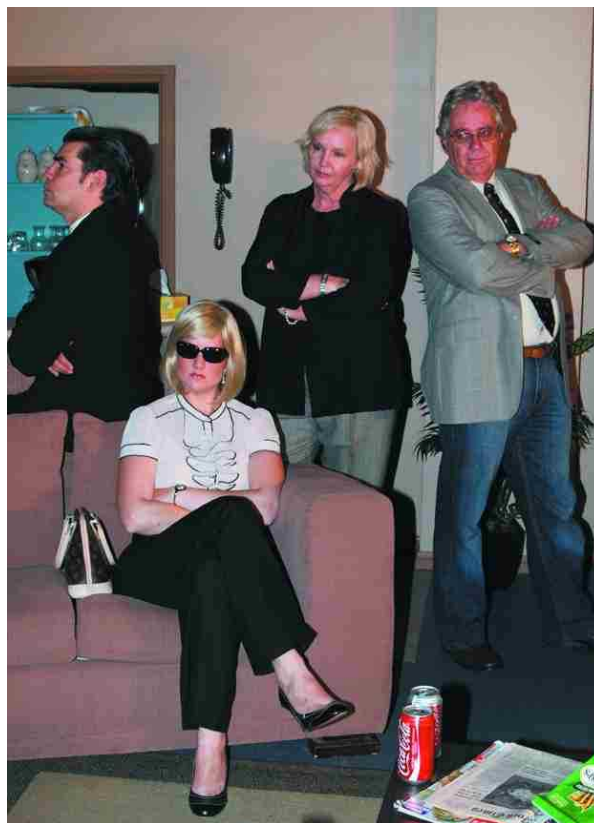

Skin Deep opens on 16 March and rehearsals are going well. There has been a cast change since auditions were held and Jim Orr is now taking a role.

Director, Jan Paterson says of the play: "When I read a play for the first time it has to grab me in the first couple of pages or I don't read any further. I figure if you don't get the audience's attention in the first few minutes, then you may as well forget it. I read this play and loved it. As an actor, I would love to have played any of the female characters, which is usually a good sign, and of course I wanted to direct the play. (It is a) sweet story about love or the lack thereof in the life of a larger-than-life character Maureen Mulligan. I love a happy ending.....need I say more? "

This article continues on page three of the newsletter.

Art Beat Festival 2011

Ipswich City Council is excited to present the inaugural showcase of the arts in Ipswich, Art Beat Festival 2011.

The event will showcase and celebrate traditional and contemporary arts, craft, performances and arts information through interactive arts and performances, displays, sales and information.

Art Beat will be staged from 10.00 am to 2.00 pm on Saturday 30 April 2011 in Brown's Park North Ipswich.

Please contact Wendy Clear at ICC on 3810 6652 or wclear@ipswich.qld.gov.au if you wish to be a part of this new festival.

Front of House Roster

Don't forget to let Majella know which night you can work at the theatre for Skin Deep.

We urgently need every member not already involved in this production to offer at least one night's work front of house (kitchen and bar duties).

You can call her on 3812 7821 or 0415 258 162 or email her at jellybean67@bigpond.com

QUOTE of the MONTH

"I regard the theatre as the greatest of all art forms, the most immediate way in which a human being can share with another the sense of what it is to be a human being."

Jean Pratt Building Activities (see page 4 for groups' contact details)

The Jean Pratt Building is used all year by these four sub-groups in ILT. It is also the venue for main house production rehearsals; for Theatre Activity Nights; Admin meetings and many other activities. If you want to use this building you must contact Desley Cronon (see page 4) first to be sure that the building is available.

Young Theatricals

The Y Ts first event on 2 February was attended by 23 young people and their parents. Thanks to President Jim Orr, assistants Craig Taylor, Desley Cronon and Les Chappell for speaking on the night. In the first workshop the YTs acted out sections of Mark Lucas' play "Verve" with some very funny and interesting results. The next workshop is with the talented writer and actress Kate Beck. All in all, a varied and exciting year ahead for our young performers. Response from Mark Lucas after working with the YTs ".....how enlightening it is to do these workshops and to be honest. I have to tell you it as re-ignited my passion once more for the craft that we all love. Sometimes it does become a little overwhelming but Wednesday night crystallized it for me... that this is something that I adore and cherish and my life would not be complete without it. I had a wonderful evening".

Theatre Activity Nights

21 February 7.30 pm- AUDITIONS for London Suite (details elsewhere in this newsletter)

7 March 7.30 pm - Theatre Trivia Night. Get a team together for a fun night with prizes and supper provided. $5 at the door.

4 April 7.30 pm - Theatre Games Evening. Watch teams battle it out for the Champions Award

The first two Theatre Activity Nights have been very successful. The playreading for London Suite saw 10 people involved and the Blast from the Past Night attracted twenty five people. Many memories of past productions were revived amongst much chat and laughter. It was great to see some members who were active a good many years ago come along and share their reminiscences.

Don't forget to get a team of friends together for the Trivia Night next month. The last one was great fun!

The full program of events planned, up to August so far, is available on our website:

ILT President's Message

Thank you to everyone for their efforts over the past month, it has been a difficult time for everyone in Ipswich whether you were affected by the flood or not. We at the theatre have fared better than most and the buildings came through rather well.

We are at the pointy end of the year with lots to be done and decided so I hope we all support each other to help get all the groups & productions up and running.

Good luck to you all - I will try to attend each of your groups and speak to the members as soon as possible.

I would like to see if there is anything we as a group can do for Dalby Players as they recover from the flood and I know that IMTC will need help as they lost quite a bit at their storage area at McMahons.

I was glad we were able to help the photographic group with their efforts to try to save so many historical photographs and items.

Good luck to you all in your efforts this year.

AUDITIONS for London Suite 21 February 7.30 pm

The production involves three comedies which follow the misadventures of the guests in an old-fashioned but upmarket London hotel.

There are 10 roles on offer (6 female and 4 male) of all ages, so the directors are hoping members will take advantage of the opportunity to perform in these short comedies. Newcomers are very welcome.

London Suite showcases the talents of America's most prolific and successful playwright, Neil Simon, whose plays create humour from the lives and troubles of everyday people.

For further information regarding the plays or auditions please ring directors Melinda Park 0419 650 441 or Robyn Flashman 38123450.

1. Going Home

Cast required:

Sheryl Semple – 50ish
Lauren Semple – 30ish

Sidney – 50+

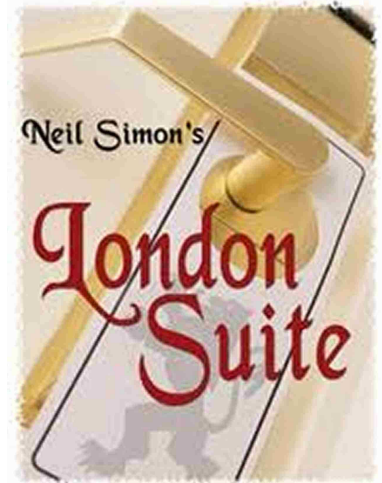

3. The Man on the Floor

Cast required:

Mark Ferris,
Annie Ferris – his wife
Bellman, Mrs Sitgood
Dr. McMerlin.

Please contact the directors if you would like to read any of the scripts.

Play season is 11-28 May including a matinee 22 May.

Skin Deep~ cont'd from page 1

The story of the play continues: Her sister Sheila is always trying to set her up with a man and the man on the end of the hook this time is the loveable Joseph Spinelli.

Joe is a big-hearted man – the good guy who always comes last and is unlucky with love.

Squire Whiting
[Sheila's husband] had a thing for Maureen (before he married Sheila) and have remained very close buddies all these years. But does Squire want more?

Insecure, Sheila is used to his flirting ways with women and tries to keep up by having lots of enhancements (plastic surgery).

Everything you have ever secretly thought about dating, romance, marriage, lovers, husbands, wives and in-laws, but were afraid to admit.
