A Different Type of Theatre ... Animation

Hello friends and supporters of Wombok Forest.

It has been seven years of stop motion animation and now Jules and Miles are finally reaching the end of their long journey.

Wombok Forest is on track and due for completion around February 2012. Our studio in Ipswich, Queensland, Australia is bursting with very large sets and props for the last shots of the last scene of the film.

We have also started the online edit and after years of viewing a low jpeg copy of our work we have been amazed at seeing for the first time our high resolution 4k images finally rendered together.

We need some traffic going to our website so we will be trying to have steady updates from now on both on our website, www.wombokforest.com.au and we have just started a facebook fan page www.facebook.com/pages/Wombok-Forest-A-Stop-Motion-Feature-Film/115339341886260 and with the odd email for backup.

Thank you for your support and interest throughout the years, please keep in touch we need a little push or a shove as we still have 5 long or not long enough months to go.

Julie Pitts and Miles Blow
