Now playing at the Incinerator
Theatre

SEASON SOLD OUT!

Congratulations to all concerned for a most successful season.

Cooper Nunn and Callum
Campbell

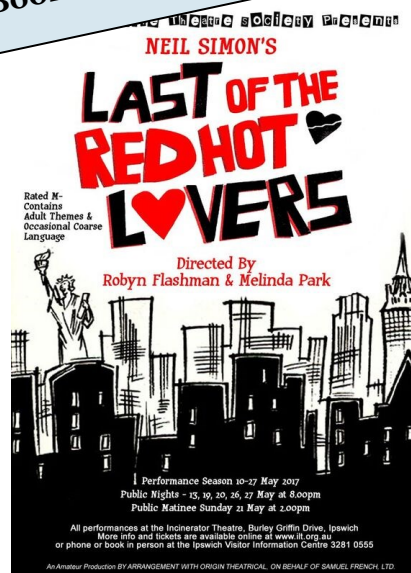

Brittany Scott, Lauren Roche
& Shannon Griffiths

A little piece of Trivia.
On 13 March the ABC
show Pointless asked contestants to name a character in An Inspector Calls. Every character was pointless, which means that not one of the hundred people on the panel could name a single one!

Book early to avoid disappointment!

Bookings open on 27 March

Neil Simon is one of the most prolific and successful contemporary playwrights on the world stage. His scripts are always very popular with our audiences – which is why we have presented quite a few of his plays. These include Barefoot in the Park, The Gingerbread Lady, *The Odd
Couple (female version)*, Jake's Women,
Chapter Two, Rumors and one act plays from Hotel Suite and London Suite.
No doubt this current offering will also delight audiences.

Directed by Robyn Flashman and Melinda Park, Last of the Red Hot Lovers will be staged between 10 and 27 May.

Public Performances 13 May (Wine & Cheese), 19, 20, 26, 27 May 8.00pm.
Matinee 21 May 2.00pm

Special General Meeting

Notice is hereby given that a very short Special General Meeting will be held in the Jean Pratt Building at 7 pm on Tuesday 11 April. The purpose of the meeting is to accept the Auditor's report for the period ending 30 September 2016. (Note: This audit was not completed in time for the AGM through unavoidable circumstances but its acceptance is mandatory for our annual return to the Department of Fair Trade.)

Helen Pullar Honorary Secretary

From the President

Thank you to everyone who attended our first Working Bee for the year. We had a great turn out, had a lot of fun, and did a lot of work. Just what a Working Bee ought to be. I would like to thank the Juniors and their parents for attacking the foliage that needed to be cut down. We can now see the garden and the theatre from the Jean Pratt Building. Thank you.

Thank you to Sandie, Ann, Keith, Josh, Tony, Michelle, Ian, Billy, Robyn F., Robyn H., Chic, Chris, Shane, Kate, Aaron and Sam for helping. As the saying goes, "A lot of hands make for light work" and it certainly did. I would especially like to thank Tony for being here at 7.30am when he started taking out the chairs and the platforms, so that we could get on with sweeping and vacuuming when the majority of us got there. And it just so happened that everything got done in time for lunch. Thank you Ann and team, for a great Morning Tea and lunch, and thank you Ian and Billy for putting up the gutter protectors. No more leaves in gutters anymore. Hopefully!

It was one of the best Working Bees I have attended. Everyone was there to get work done, and we did it with mateship, a lot of laughs, and team work. Thank you so much for making the Working Bee successful.

See you at the Theatre

David

Junior Theatre

The combination of Juniors and Little Players has worked well and rehearsals are slowly coming together.

The background in the photograph shows the involvement of the students in making the backdrop for Nina in Numberland.

A second 'Soup & Trivia Night' is planned for 17 June, so it is time to start recruiting players for your team. And of course, don't miss Nina in Numberland on 28 or 29 April. Tickets are on sale from Saturday 18 March from Ann or Deidre.

S-Troupe

The S-Troupers are currently preparing a small Easter concert which will be performed at The Springs and then at Elim Village on Sunday 2 April.

As usual, the students are excited at the prospect of performing in front of an appreciative audience.

Good Value

Ipswich Little Theatre has always prided itself on having relatively cheap ticket prices which provide great value. But a programme from 1976 advertised a special offer: for an annual subscription of $8 you got six tickets for the major productions. This is a sign of the inflation over forty years, but also explains why development of our complex was hampered by financial constraints.

Young Theatricals

The YTs attended the final dress rehearsal for An Inspector Calls. The students were hugely involved and went away with a lot of information to put to practical use. It was a huge success for them as the following night they were still raving about it.

At the first workshop Aaron Evans spoke at length about auditions and auditioning. The kids were then put through a mock audition for Stage Directions which went quite well. A few even made a point of asking when the proper ones were happening so they could try their hands. The next workshop – on characterisation – will be conducted by Shane Mallory on 28 March. Other members are welcome to join in. (Please advise Kyle if attending).

A script for Exit Stage Left by Geoff Bamber has been submitted to Selection Committee for approval as an entry at several Festivals.

As part of our community service policy, ILT has made the Incinerator grounds available to Ipswich West Special School.

Members and friends are welcome to attend.

The event is being organised by Sarah Beale-Barbero who is, of course the daughter of Eleanor and Clive Beale and granddaughter of Jean Pratt.

Intending patrons are asked to RSVP by 24 April to Sarah at 3813 5111 or sbeal14@eq.edu.au

Tourific Troupers

The year's activities are about to start again for the Tourific Troupers with the first tour to be held on 31 March. To kick the year off the volunteers gathered for morning tea on 7 March where they enjoyed each other's company and Jane Sheppard's scones.

Ann Collyer, Bev Clark, Delwyn Palmer & Joan McCann

Toyah Cox (S-Trouper), Gloria Cox, Leah Bell, Helen Pullar

Auditions for The Sum of Us by David Stevens will be held on Monday 27 March in the Jean Pratt Building at 7:30 pm

The available parts are for 1 male 45-55: 1 female 45-55: 2 males 20-30

A widowed father has to deal with two complex issues. While he is searching for “Miss Right”, his son is searching for “Mr. Right”

Harry lives with his rugby playing, gay son, with both men struggling in their search for true love. Harry is completely comfortable with his son’s sexuality and almost over eager in his support for his son’s search for a boyfriend. When each does find a new love interest, the “odd couple” relationship between father and son creates big issues for them all.

The play will be directed by Doug Moses and Chris Austin-Greenhill assisted by Lucia Grant.

Season 12 July—29 July
