

Ipswich Little Theatre Society
Daytime Theatre Troupe
Presents a pantomime:

Wally Llama's Circus Adventure

Written by Sianne Tarda. Directed by Jane Sheppard & Margaret Martin

June 2020 – Mon 8, Tues 9, Thursday 11, Tues 16, Wed 17, Fri 19, Sat 20

Performances are at 10am and 12md.

At the Incinerator Theatre complex, Burley Griffin Drive, Ipswich.

Perfect for the 3-8 year age group who will enjoy singing along and interacting with the circus characters. The show runs for 45-50 minutes.

Educational concepts of hefting, comparing two-dimensional shapes, colours, counting, direct comparisons of length, weight, etc.

Come one, come all, the circus is in town. Riley the Ringleader is looking for some new circus acts. Wally Llama is the best circus helper ever, but will he be brave enough to audition for a starring role? Ellie, the tightrope walking elephant suffers vertigo; Lenny Lion has trouble finding a hoop large enough to jump through; Samantha the Strongwoman is afraid to lift weights over her head; Mandy Rabbit's magic tricks get a bit muddled; while chimps and clowns entertain.

Cost: $8 per person. Bookings are essential.
