A compelling season of fear, failing, and fretting.

In the Forest of the Night

by Del Martin

Directed by Kate Hoepner

Assisted by Mack Groves

Thirteen teenagers gather deep in the forest to play “The Game of Thirteen.” As they search for mysterious “signals,” friendships are tested, loyalties are challenged, and one player must face the ultimate choice. This haunting drama explores courage, sacrifice, and what it means to grow up.

A Collier's Tuesday Tea

by Richard Quant

Directed by Aaron Evans Assisted by Jess Pitman and Ollie Gavranovic

Everything goes wrong in this coarse theatre piece! A Collier's Tuesday Tea combines the kitchen sink with the coal-mine, and with an irreverent glance at D.H. Lawrence.

Odd Chemistry

by Aaron Evans

Directed by Sam Hoepner

Assisted by Dylan Clevens and Student Director Abigail Newman

*Step inside Jacinta's mind, where Anxiety, Depression, B.P.D., Serotonin, and Dopamine fight for control.
Funny, fast-paced, and deeply moving, this award-winning play dives into the chaos of mental health with both wit and heart.*
